Dear Parents/Guardians,

Thank you for your continued support as we navigate this new virtual learning environment. The purpose of this communication is to provide information about grading procedures. During this unprecedented time, we want the focus to be on learning, therefore we want to continue to provide feedback to students, but understand that the virtual environment is new, and a challenge for both students and staff. Please review the details below and reach out to your child's school with any questions.

PK-3

- March 17th – March 31st: Work assigned virtually or through hard copies for this time period will not be assessed/graded for correctness. Rather, this work will be used as part of the classwork/participation grade. For students who were unable to submit this work due to hardship or other circumstances, please contact the classroom teacher for guidance.
- April 1st – TBD:
 - Trimester 3 dates will remain the same
 - Interim grades will be posted to the Parent Portal May 6th
 - Students will continue to be assessed on Standards for Trimester 3

Grade 4-5

- March 17th – March 31st: Work assigned virtually or through hard copies for this time period will not be assessed/graded for correctness. Rather, this work will be used as part of the classwork/participation grade. For students who were unable to submit this work due to hardship or other circumstances, please contact the classroom teacher for guidance.
- April 1st – TBD:

Grades 6-12

- March 17th – March 31st: Work assigned virtually or through hard copies for this time period will not be assessed/graded for correctness. This work will be used as part of the classwork/participation grade. For students who were unable to submit this work due to hardship or other circumstances, please contact the classroom teacher for guidance.
- April 1st – TBD:
 - Marking periods 3 & 4 will be combined, resulting in a total of 3 marking periods for the year.
 - Interim grades will be posted to the Parent Portal on April 30th

- 6th Grade Related Arts Courses are remaining with their MP 3 teacher/course for the remainder of the school year.

Should you have specific questions regarding the assessment of your child that is specific to a particular subject or course, please reach out directly to their teacher using district email, Google Classroom or other forms of virtual communication established by the teacher. Generalized questions about the assessment of your child should be addressed to your child's guidance counselor or their building Principal.

Stay safe. We are #EHTStrong!
